

Topics

Is Pakistan Ready For Digital revolution.

- 1) Introduction.
- 2) ~~Knowing~~ what is digital revolution.
- 3) Instances of digital advancement in Pakistan.

- a) ~~Adoptness~~ Adoption education in COVID-19 times shows the country's potential for a digital revolution.
- b) NADRA's successful online registration feature for ID card.
- c) Online banking points out adaptiveness of digital advancement.
- d) "E-stamp" in Punjab's Revenue department is showing positive results.
- e) Freelancing and online business surge also indicates chances of digital advancement.
- f) Online transactions, use of debit card and ~~credit~~ save money promoting finances.
- g) Online complain portals in different ~~government~~ departments are welcome steps towards digital revolution.

- 4) Benefits of digital revolution in Pakistan.

Unnecessary detail

- a) Business friendly environment can be enhanced through digitalization.
- b) Digital democracy can change the political outlook of the country.
- c) Turning towards digitalization can improve economic conditions of Pakistan.

d) EVM can ensure transparency in elections

e) Digitalization can save time and curb areas of corruption

f) Dramas and movies can be used to uplift moral standards of the society

5) Pakistan's vulnerabilities towards digital revolution.

a) Meagreness of public awareness regarding accuracy of digital instruments

b) Inability to properly use and benefit from digital instruments

c) Instances of fraud and cyber crime results in distrust among public

d) Stereotypical thinking and rigidity towards change

e) ~~Strong~~ lack of political will for digitalization.

6) ~~Conclusion~~ Roadmap to ensure maximum digitalization

a) ~~Digital~~ promotion of digital literacy among the population

b) Government support for digital entrepreneurship

c) Cyber security should be ensured

d) Accessibility and affordability of internet services

7) Conclusion

Avoid irrelevant details

Rest is correct