Rewrite the following dialogue, written in direct speech, in a paragraph form.

Swarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.
Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office, but that's all, and these are hundreds of fellows who have got their degree, and are no nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain any degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.

Narration | Dialogue Form

Swarup replied that he could not get a degree without passing an examination and he had set his heart on being a graduate. Jack asked Swarup what graduation would do for him; he might get a clerkship in a government office and that was all. He further said that there were hundreds of fellows who had gotten their degrees, & were no nearer getting jobs of any sort. Junk Swarup replied he was not studying to pass his examination and obtain his degree; rather he was doing so to store his mind with knowledge and develop his intellectual faculties.
