

Palestine Conflict: History and the way forward.

Outlines:

Introduction:

Once there was a native Arab living in the desert during the winter. One night a camel was blowing outside his tent, he got outside the camel asked for shelter to cover only his head. So, he allowed the camel in his tent, as the hours passed the camel entered his trunk and later his limbs too and ousted the tenant from his own tent. He spent the night shivering outside in the cold. In the same way when the Europeans were treating the Jews and stretched the land on them, the Palestinians gave them asylum, food and shelter. But with the passage of time they started occupying territories and the historic conflict rooted in the Middle-east. The Palestine-Israel conflict is the claim of territories by the both sides. The issue started back in 1916, when Ottomans were defeated in the WWI by the Allied Powers and their territories were divided among the European powers including the Palestine. Furthermore, the Balfour Declaration of 1917 paved the

Date. _____

for the formation of an illegal Jewish state in the Palestine. In 1922, the League of Nations mandated the Palestine to British for the next 25 years. Thus, Palestine came under the control British which speedize the Jewish immigration and settlement in the disputed region. In result, this led to the bilateral skirmishes. In these circumstances, the British coined the Peel Commission Accord in 1937, which reduced the Jews immigration and settlement. Further more, followed by the UN resolution, Oslo Accord and the Camp David Peace Treaty, but no one war was materialized. In addition to these treaties, multiple wars were fought between the Israel and Arabs.
However, this dispute is the long persisted unresolved dispute in the Middle-East. The Palestine-Israel dispute is the illegal settlement and occupation of Jews in the Palestine.
That led to the displacement of hundreds of thousands of Palestinians and occupation of their territories by the Jewish settlers. The only Solution to the dispute is the two independent states along each other.

A) The historical perspective of Israel-Palestine conflict.

a) The story of Jews and Muslims to the holy land.

b) What is the conflict?

c) Factors that led to the conflict.

b) The reasons or the factors that led to the conflict.

a) Ottomans defeat in WWI.

b) McMahon and Hussein Correspondance.

c) The Balfour Declaration of 1917.

d) The League of Nations mandate for the European Powers.

e) Mass Immigration and Settlement of the Jews.

f) Peel Commission 1937.

g) The UN Resolution 181.

h) The Declaration of Jewish State.

i) The "Nakba"

j) Palestine after the Nakba.

k) The wars between the Israel and Arab's.

Date. _____

Israel - Palestine Conflict

- C) The repercussions of the
- Mass migration of the Palestinians.
 - The Jewish Settlements
 - Arab - Israel wars.
 - The ethnic cleansing of Palestinians.
 - The formation of organizations for the Palestine independence.
 - Palestinians under Seize.
 - The violation of Universal human rights.
- D) The way forward for a peaceful solution.
- The resumption of negotiations.
 - Two State solution according to the Pre-1967 borders.
 - Implementation of the International accords.

Keep writing to bring more maturity in your writing