

Rafya Ikram

Brain Drain in Pakistan: A Temporary advantage to a limitless loss.

1- Introduction

Thesis statement:

Pakistan has highly intellectual and talented people. But the ongoing crisis in country led to seek better opportunities in other countries for a stable lifestyle which in return damages the forthcoming youth future.

Future of youth

Groundzero of Brain Drain in Pakistan

- (a) Economic exploitation in Pakistan.
- (b) Lack of resources and research opportunities.
- (c) Disrespect of Professional people.
- (d) Non-Merit based recruitment to different posts in institutes.
- (e) Better learning and earning opportunities in other countries.

Since, this is not the asked part. So just add 1-2 arguments here, if u want, otherwise no need to mention reasons of brain drain.

(3) Temporary advantage of Brain Drain

- (a) Earning of good and ample amount
- (b) Better excellent opportunities
- (c) Good reputes of other countries in world
- (d) Appreciated by international organizations

(4) Limitless loss due to Brain Drain

- (a) Upcoming generation will follow same path
- (b) No role models for existing youth
- (c) Shaping of youth will not be as good as before
- (d) Country cannot progress without such intellectual people

Provide more diverse arguments here

(5) Tackling issue of Brain Drain in Pakistan

- (a) Good economical packages leading to Excel
- (b) Appreciation of efforts of professionals, focus
- (c) Economic stability of Pakistan.
- (d) Improvement of infrastructure of institutes in Pakistan.

6 - Conclusion.