

Free and fair elections is the only medium to nourish the democracy. It is sad that the government is not taking serious measures to solve the issue of election. The strong stance could solve this massive issue. Therefore, the enormous policies could change the fortune of the democracy. Indeed, democracy is the only platform for the betterment of economical and social sectors of the state. Free and fair election could build up the trust of the people. Trust is having positive effect on the system of democracy. The measures should be taken within due time otherwise it is like clock ~~without~~ ~~steps~~ with broken springs. The concrete actions can bring the law into motion. The spread of democracy in its true sense is the only solution to extract the meaningful measures for the upgradation of democratic means in the state. The social fabric would be strong when the policies are well-defined and having the ingredients, which could make betterment in the policies.

The unflinching support could gain economic victory. However, the democracy could not be dealt as ~~an~~ like the totalitarian regime. The chance to contest the election should be given to any person willing to contest the election. The baseless verbal attacks should be avoided and effective measures must be taken to halt it at any cost. The uniformity could help the people to uplift the democratic norms and values. Keeping the fruits in mind, the collective steps should be taken to run the democracy smoothly. To ameliorate the condition the state policies must include all these professional norms, which could overcome the loopholes in the democratic form of governance. The only way to attain all these achievements are existed in the transparency of the democratic norms, which are upgrading the social fabric and sedimentary norms regarding to counter all these basic principles of the state. The uniformity is the only way to transform the values of the people. Otherwise the massive steps should be taken to amend the way of the mentality.

the religious and sectarian warfare have brought new challenges into the life of the people. The collective measures are to be taken for the enormous changes of the growth. The counter narratives should be made to thwart the basic principles dealing with it. The tremendous ways exist for the benefits of the people. However, the lethal and feeble ways could amend the prosperity of the people. The upcoming challenges are the valid and concrete measures to counter the narratives damaging the basic principles of the democracy. The measures must be taken to evolve the cycle of the progress. The fringe and unconventional steps could alter the ways of modification of the resources dealing with it. The collective measures are to be taken for the betterment of state.

The Afghan people needs all-out support from the international community to address their issues including the right to life. It is one of the most important article of United Nations charter. The insecurity would cause many problems for the inhabitants of the Afghanistan. The prime responsible of the international community is to urge upon the humanitarian aids to the victims. Therefore, the swift assistance would help the people of Afghanistan to survive. However, failure to do so would cause massive catastrophies including the violation of fundamental rights. The international community should consider the issue, otherwise it would effect the survivals of all over the world. Therefore, the ignorance policy could lead to terrorism. The non-state actors can take benefits from the situation - and they can use the naive people to be used as an international terrorists. Therefore, the prime focus would be give to resolve the international issue, otherwise the irrecoverable loss will be the fortune of the world.

The Afghan soil has been the best battlefield in the world history. The multi-cultural and multi-ethnicity have caused massive problems in the history of the Afghanistan. The Afghan war of 1978-92 had presented brutal warfare, in which the Soviet troops were the direct participants of the game. Although, the war has been sophisticated scenario, in which it was hard to extract the true sense of the war, the international community failed to address this massive battle, in which the permanent security members were the direct participants in the war. It seems astonishing that the U.S attacks on Kabul, toppling the Afghan Taliban. The situation became worst, when the govern Afghan Taliban, with its ultraconservative ideology implement the rule of Shariah. The interpretation was done by themselves, without give change to interpret the Shariah. The toppling of Afghan Taliban was miracle in the history of Afghan.
