

Political Instability in Pakistan

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Political instability has caused a great effect across the globe. Similarly Pakistan is facing several issues because of political instability. However, there are certain factors which can make Pakistan politically stable.

2. Current situation

3. Impacts of Political instability

- (i) Killing the national Integrity
- (ii) Political stability and economic stability go hand in hand
- (iii) Decreasing Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)
- (iv) People ^{are} working for their own interest
- (v) An aggressive style of Politics
- (vi) Declining the healthy political environment

4. Causes of Political Instability

- (i) The centralization of power
- (ii) An aggressive style of politics
- (iii) Political crisis looms as Economic default deepens
- (iv) Family leadership

5. Remedies

5 Suggestions for political stability

- (i) To conduct transparent and unbiased elections
- (ii) To build the concept of national integrity
- (iii) To work mutually for the betterment of Pakistan.
- (iv) Encourage public participation rather than family leadership
- (v) To enforce constitutional laws in the true sense

6. Conclusion