

Title

morality and societal development.
through education.

Precis

There are different thoughts about the freedom in education and liberty of children. Some people say that children must be in complete liberty and they must ^{be} virtuous in this regard. This thought seems to be illogical as the complete liberty does not ensure morality or moral perfection. These people also think that education must be only for the society development. The Author is not agree with their thoughts as the mutual cooperation and affection is necessary for survival in a society which can be ensured through education. Development of a society depends upon morality and technology in science and these are obtained from education. Children should learn more morality from education.

Title

Importance of study of pastor history.

Precis

There has remained a unique connection between the present and the past. The people who study their past critically, become able to learn from their history for a good future. They comprehend the values and culture of earlier people. They keep in their mind the causes of ups and down of previous people. They try to adopt those steps that were proved to be the cause of success of earlier people. While the people who do not analyze their past, remain uncertain about their future. They think that the past was glorious and do not learn from history.
