Title: Laziness: a blessing

Unconsciousness of the busiest people towards precise work creates certain ills in the world. e.g. derides wrath on laziness is clarity regarding above notion. Hence, the active virtue is responsible for ills in the world. As the most of it is misguided. On the other side, in July 1914, harsh weather kept people away from the busiest routine. Thus, they were leading a better life than today's people spend. Further, concept of life increased towards work being done. ~~Thus, they~~ But, Peace Conference and worldly affairs reformed positively when people got disconnected from the busiest routine. It further would bring much clarity when European politician would deny the perception towards laziness is an evil. As, evils are sprawled so, people who rush towards religion conferences are being criticized. Simply, impact of such religious conferences would bring mental reformation and cause betterment.
