

Assignment: English Precis and Composition
Assignment No: 1

Batch: 47

Submitted to: Sir Haroon Salim

Submitted by: Sobia

1 Write a Precis of the following and suggest a suitable title

Paragraph NO 1

Teenagers should not be allowed to drive. There are too many problems that occur when teenagers get behind the wheel. There are too many traffic accidents involving teens. Also, most teenagers are not responsible enough to handle the financial responsibility of driving.

Precis

Driving of teenagers create many problems. They must be prevent from further loss.

Title

Teenage driving is curse

Paragraph NO 2

I think it is absolutely important for children to learn to swim at any early age. Learning to swim early assures that they will have success learning to swim in the future. It gives children confidence in their abilities to do thing on their own if they can do this one thing on their own. Finally, it will help children be comfortable in the water because they'll have early experience being in the water. So if children learn to swim early, they'll be at a great advantage in the future.

Precis

Swimming is very important for children. Swimming at an early age give children confidence to do something on their own.

Title

The importance of swimming.

Paragraph No 3

Loaning money to anyone, regardless of his relationship to you, is always a risky move. This is especially true when it comes to loaning money to your friends. What may start out as a kind gesture could easily backfire, resulting in the loss of money and a good friend. However, I believe loaning money to a friend is a good idea, as long as you trust your friend, both you and your friend understand the terms of the loan, and are able to put yourself in your friend's position.

Precis

Lending money to a friend, may lead to loss of money as well as friendship. On the other hand lending money to a friend is a good idea, until one trusts him.

Title

Lending money to friends is good or bad

Paragraph No 4

As the old adage goes, "Laughter is the best medicine." Some people firmly believe in the healing power of both laughter and joy and their ability to improve your quality of life. So, I agree with the statement that laughter and joy are essential aspects for living a healthy and happy life. First and foremost, having laughter and joy in your life free of debilitating unhappiness. Furthermore, both laughter and joy have been proven to better one's physical wellbeing. Finally, having laughter and joy in your life helps to better the lives of those you encounter.

Precis:

Some people deny the role of laughter and joy. But the writer seems disagree with the statement, he thinks joy is the part of healthy and happy life.

Title

The importance / role of joy in life.