

Title : Priortism

In this world every country claims that it is the best country among all. This concept is totally erroneous because every country is well in it's own. Every person, country, thing has got good and bad qualities, the basic and essential things for every country is to keep their people happier, if the bad things exists in country we should vanish it, and must follow development countries.

and historical pictures, famous people and incidents. These small things stamps in old books. A stamp itself has a important events.

EXERCISE 148

Write summaries of the following passages of about one-third of the original length:—

1. In every country people imagine that they are the best and the cleverest and the others are not so good as are not so good as they are. The Englishman thinks that he and his country are the best, the Frenchman is very proud of France and everything French. The Germans and Italians think no less of their countries and many Indians imagine that India is in many ways the greatest country in the world. This is wrong. Everybody wants to think well of himself and his country. But really there is no person who has not got some good and some bad qualities. In the same way, there is no country which is not partly good and partly bad. We must take the good wherever we find it and try to remove the bad wherever it may be. We are, of course, most concerned with our own country, India. Unfortunately, it is in a bad way today. Many of our people are poor and unhappy. They have no joy in their lives. We have to find out how we can make them happier. We have to see what is good in our ways and customs and try to keep it, and whatever is bad we have to throw away. If we find anything good in other countries, we should certainly take it. superstitions which survive in various parts of the country, and the story of them
