

"Social Justice"

The Social Justice is the only medium, which can uplift the socio-economic condition of the state. The society is the basic unit of state, so the implementation of rule of law, speedy justice and fair justice could lead to social tranquility among the inhabitants of the society. Therefore, the social control has the potential to secure and protect the right to life of the person. The era of might is right, had caused several injuries to the people. That era is considered as the dark period, where the rights were not protected in the society. The unfair implementation of justice system would give birth to many uncertainties in the society.

However, the unfair system will cause hurdles in the society. The living would become impossible to survive in the territory, where the law is taken by people into their own hands. To conclude fairly the above passage, that the authorized and responsible authorities must halt the unfair situation in the society.
