

Saima Sultan

1) The far-reaching effects of Political instability in Pakistan.

Thesis statement:-

Political instability imparts deep effects in Pakistan, because it reduces the probability of Foreign Direct Investment, economic instability. It can be averted when the elected representative Government of Pakistan will be allowed to complete its 5 year term without any obstruction.

(Total: 41 words)

2) Role of media in projecting local unrest at global scale.

Thesis statement:-

Media plays an important role in presenting local disturbance at global scale. This is because it raises the issues of persecuted by filming it and then airing on the Television worldwide. There should be more verified media houses to highlight the issues.

(Total words: 44)

3) Feminism has given more questions than answers.

Thesis statement:-

Feminism, is encountered (seen) with objections rather than solving the problems. Because in a patriarchal society like in our country, females always face objections on their empowerment. There should be no objections on them so that they can also enjoy their rights like basic education, health, employment, etc.

(Total words: 46)