

International Politics

International politics is concerned to the problems of several states. International politics main focus is to alleviate the conflicts among the states. Therefore, the absence of conflicts could bring tranquility, peace and stability. ~~such incidents~~ Prime focus of international politics is to thwart all that actions, which can bring disaster whether natural or man-made. Understanding international politics is the dire need of the hour, because the negligence or misunderstanding could lead to highly-damaging effects. Role of international community is eminent to overcome the global stress. Gradual fusion of states upon trade, education or any purpose have deep effect on their relationships. Therefore, the mainstream of economies must be utilized to gain collective interest instead of conflicting interest among the state. ~~It~~ Nation-state is the subject matter of international politics, the core of understanding the ongoing challenges of the state on the international level.

The Impact of online education:

online education became trending in the time of Covid-19. Growing factors to usage was the Pandemic, which has killed tens of thousands people. Spreading of virus was the core issue, upon which the global domain has suggested zero-interaction among the people. While interaction is one of the main ingredient in learning of education, to preserve the time the zoom application was launched to feed the learning curiosity of the learners. Initiative is praise worthy, that the people became within touch with the electronic gadgets to utilize them on the better way. Therefore, the zero-interaction policy was becoming possible. However, the lives of thousand of people was saved, and their time for getting knowledge was not wasted too. Such steps are the dire need in time of crises ~~to~~ in order to alleviate the health, wealth and educational sectors of the globe by adopting enormous policies.

Modern States and its evolution.

→ Dynamics in the fundamental structure has achieved plenty of achievements, including the modification in the structure of state. The state has been passed from several process, and passes at the moment. Globalization is one of the main ingredient in the evolutionary period of the state. Interaction boosted up among the nation-states, gradual fusion in the relationships of the state. Dependence became the major tool of the international trade. Ongoing process or progress would capable the nation-state to uplift the development progress. However, the ~~not~~ negligence may bring ~~highly~~ highly-damaging effects. So to alleviate the globe conflict, the international community must play active role to thwart human disaster. Therefore, amid measures should be taken to control the conflicts being caused by globalization. The totality of dependence may bring huge destruction and irrecoverable losses to the globe. Steady policies are the dire need of the hour to halt further destruction of the by name of globalization.