

Submitted by: Sobia

Submitted to: Sir Arif Javaid Batch: 47

Assignment: English Essay

Assignment No: 3

Topic: Expanding information technology:
a curse or blessing

Topic: Expanding information technology: a curse or blessing?

Stance: Blessing

3. Information technology has provided innumerable benefits to mankind.

a. Information technology has facilitated communication to a great extent.

b. All mankind can have access to information technology.

c. It has facilitated us in our education system.

d. With the internet, people can find almost any information they need within seconds.

e. It has also greatly improved the entertainment industry, with the use of streaming services and online video platforms.

Antithesis

4. Information technology has brought several curses to mankind.

a. Spreading of fake news has also become convenient.

b. Only those who possess technology devices have access.

c. Various attractive sites, apps diverges from educational learning.

e. More use of it leads to addiction and problems such as poor sleep, lack of focus and difficulty maintaining relationship.

Synthesis

5. The blessings of information technology outweigh the curses experienced by mankind.

a. Rumour-spreading existed even before the advent of IT.

b. Now-a-days technology devices are cheaper or affordable to everyone (because they are found within the phone).

c. When users use it responsibly, it can be a powerful tool for improving education system.

d. The easiest ways to avoid the trap of fake news, one go directly to credible news websites for news.

e. To reduce such problems a person need to use online services in limit.