Impact of Shaikh Ahmad on Muslims of India

History tells us that whenever there would any threat come by any agencies or non-Muslims, at that time such personalities come in front and not only protect Islam from those threat even they influenced others towards Islam and had great impact on history. At the time of Mughal emperor Akbar, Islam was at great danger because of his Din-Dahi and he was known by Aqam-e-Adil and Mujadil-Aqam. At that time Muslims forget the basics of Deen and Shariah, they started believing in superstitious powers by Hindus. So Shaikh Ahmad Rishindi wrote many books & letters to influence the Muslims and to come back to their religion. ❀
