" Power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely

It is well said that power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely. We have experienced from the past and present that whoever has got power in their hands they ~~have~~ become autocratic kings and administrators in the past, while exercising their power has committed atrocities and brutalities on their subjugates. In addition to this they had also manipulated the national wealth in extra-vagant manner. They used the wealth for their personal well being and ignored the welfare of the general masses. A worth mentioning example is the construction of Taj Mahal by Mughal emperor. Which was only built to please his wife by the emperor of that time. conclusively we can say that the concentration of too much power in single hand corrupts the people morally and ethically.
