

Globalization to Deglobalization

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: A series of some noticeable events in last decade, exhibits that balance of global arena is tilting to deglobalization from globalization.

2- Emerging Concept of Deglobalization

3- Key concerns for Globalization a- Rise of protectionism b- Prevalence of Xenophobia and Sinophobia c- Gradual decline in foreign direct investment d- Unsustainable trade imbalance

4- Manifestation of Deglobalization a- Multilateralism to unilateralism b- Rise of nationalism in democratic states c- Anti-immigration policies d- Inter-country inequalities e- Reluctance of mainstream stakeholders towards peace treaties f- Investment in vehicle weaponization g- Unresolved global conflicts and interventions h- Absence of global consensus for climate crisis

4- Is World Shifting from Globalization to Deglobalization? Already discussed in main head 4.

5- Way forward for Effective Globalization a- Lessening the gap between global north and global south ✓ b- Global governance without global government ✓ c- Multilateralism on the basis of mutual cooperation

7- Conclusion

Globalization could be the answer to many problems of world, but this require strong democratic foundation based on political will to ensure equity and justice.
(Sharn Burrow)