

Title

Importance of study of ~~past or history~~.

Precis

There has remained a unique connection between the present and the past. The people who study their past critically, ~~are~~ become able to learn from their history for a good future. They comprehend the values and culture of earlier people. They keep in their mind the causes of ups and down of previous people. They try to adopt those steps that were proved to be the cause of success of earlier people. ~~While the people who do not analyze their past, remain uncertain about their future. They think that the past was glorious and do not learn from history.~~

Passage word = 288

Precis word = 100

Punctuation needs improvement. Do not repeat "earlier people" more than once. Use different words instead.