

Theme:

Veracity and Reclamation.

Precis:

The part of philosophy implies a constant search of the truth. A real understanding of truth demands certain qualities. The seeker must be capable of distinguishable between real and unreal, Temporary or lasting things. He must realise that highest veracity and Reclamation cannot achieved through worldly comforts but through their renunciation. This ideal needs a constant search of the lasting joys. He must do away with his false ego. With ego's death many troubles automatically fade away. By disowning his own self, he can own the whole world.
