

2016 - Precs

Title: Reminiscences of Cherokee and its Culture

The author explains his reservation to plan a holiday trip to some exotic place and finally he decided to visit the Cherokee country in the State of Oklahoma. Where he saw some historical things that were mostly related to the ancient time. He explains that he experienced a number of barriers due to the language contradiction. Adding to this, finally, he met a native who knew his language and who invited him for the lunch. During the lunch, native told him that he is woodcutter and hardly to achieve his basic needs. Moreover, author also explains the people of Cherokee don't depend on single job. Furthermore, he explains that there was a Bingo weekend which attracted a huge crowd, where people were performing different roles. Finally, he saved some reminiscences of the Cherokee.

Total words = 390

Precs words = 128

Precis-2017 - F108;

Title: Laziness: a blessing disguise

Different issues rise across the globe, people don't act rightly at the right time. In ~~the~~ adding to this, Satan is the busiest creature in this world. It does not waste a single moment in his kingdom. Moreover, Sluggishness has not brought this globe into this jumble, but it is the lack of kind of, all the important personalities had enjoyed their time at the same hill station, things could have been much better. Furthermore, if the politicians had not left to the Versailles with some bad intentions, world has not been experiencing such types of disasters. Even today, things can get better, if Europe politicians understood that Sluggishness is not a crime. Additionally, things can also get better, if religious sects abandon to their useless religious conferences and to discuss the irrelevant things in public meeting.

Total words: 439

Precis words: 137