

Theme: The polyglot state is a benediction

Precis:

Our country though poor yet many languages. If with effort and dedication we can wipe out poverty, these languages can help the child pick up things easily. It is only a language is forced upon the people that it checks the very process of education. (46 words)