

Energy Politics And International Relations

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:-

In globalized world, energy politics is determining the major international relations. A country's industrial progress is determined by availability of energy. Thus, determining a country's relations with others. Countries, subsequently, restrict or expands relations ~~base~~ on the basis of energy security. (40)

2. How Energy Politics define international relations?

3. Changing dynamics of Energy Politics

- a- Sanctions on Russian hydrocarbons
- b- Exploration of other energy sources
- c- Disruption in energy supply lines
- d- Biden's Visit to KSA for securing

e- OPEC+ resolution of cutting oil supplies

f- Russia selling oil on discounted prices

4. Impact of Energy politics on international relations -

- a- Increased concept of solidarity among European states
 - b- Strained relations between USA and its long standing ally KSA
 - c- Expanding relations between China and KSA
 - d- India's independent foreign policy
 - e- Pressure on Pakistan to restrict energy agreements
 - f- Countries are redirecting their relations for energy security
- 5- Conclusion
-