

Name: Alveera Rubab
Batch: Rwp-OB-33

Essay

Knowledge implies responsibility

Outline:

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement:

Knowledge is not just knowing about something but it also requires to use it with a sense of responsibility. Knowledge is termed as power, and power always comes with responsibility but it can cause more harm than benefit if used irresponsibly. However, combining knowledge with responsibility can do wonders.

2. How responsibility is implied with knowledge.

3. What responsibilities are connected with knowledge.

- a. Ethical responsibility
- b. Religious responsibility
- c. Social responsibility
- d. Individual responsibility

- b. Encounter with ground realities of public projects by government
- c. Enhancement of foreign relations with wise use of knowledge
- d. Judicious calculations of cost and benefit prior using knowledge
- e. Accountability for actions between right and wrong
- f. Avoidance of chaos among masses
- g. Stability of social fabric of nation
- h. Measurement of rationale of the government

5. Effects of disseminating knowledge with irresponsibility

- a. Threat to national peace and security
- b. Usage of sensitive knowledge by evil minds for vested interest
- c. Destruction of society instead of betterment
- d. Sense of mistrust among people for authorities
- e. Bombardment of non-factual and unauthorised information

6. Conclusion