To ensure security in Afghanistan that will be a guarantee of its own security. Moreover, by countering Indian element, working in Afghan soil, it can have stable western border. Being a Muslim and neighboring state to Pakistan, Muslim umah could be strengthened by collaborating with each other. But things showed a drastic change in events in one year.

→ Current status is a - border tensions.

b - Taliban dependence on India for trade.

c - Rise in terrorism.

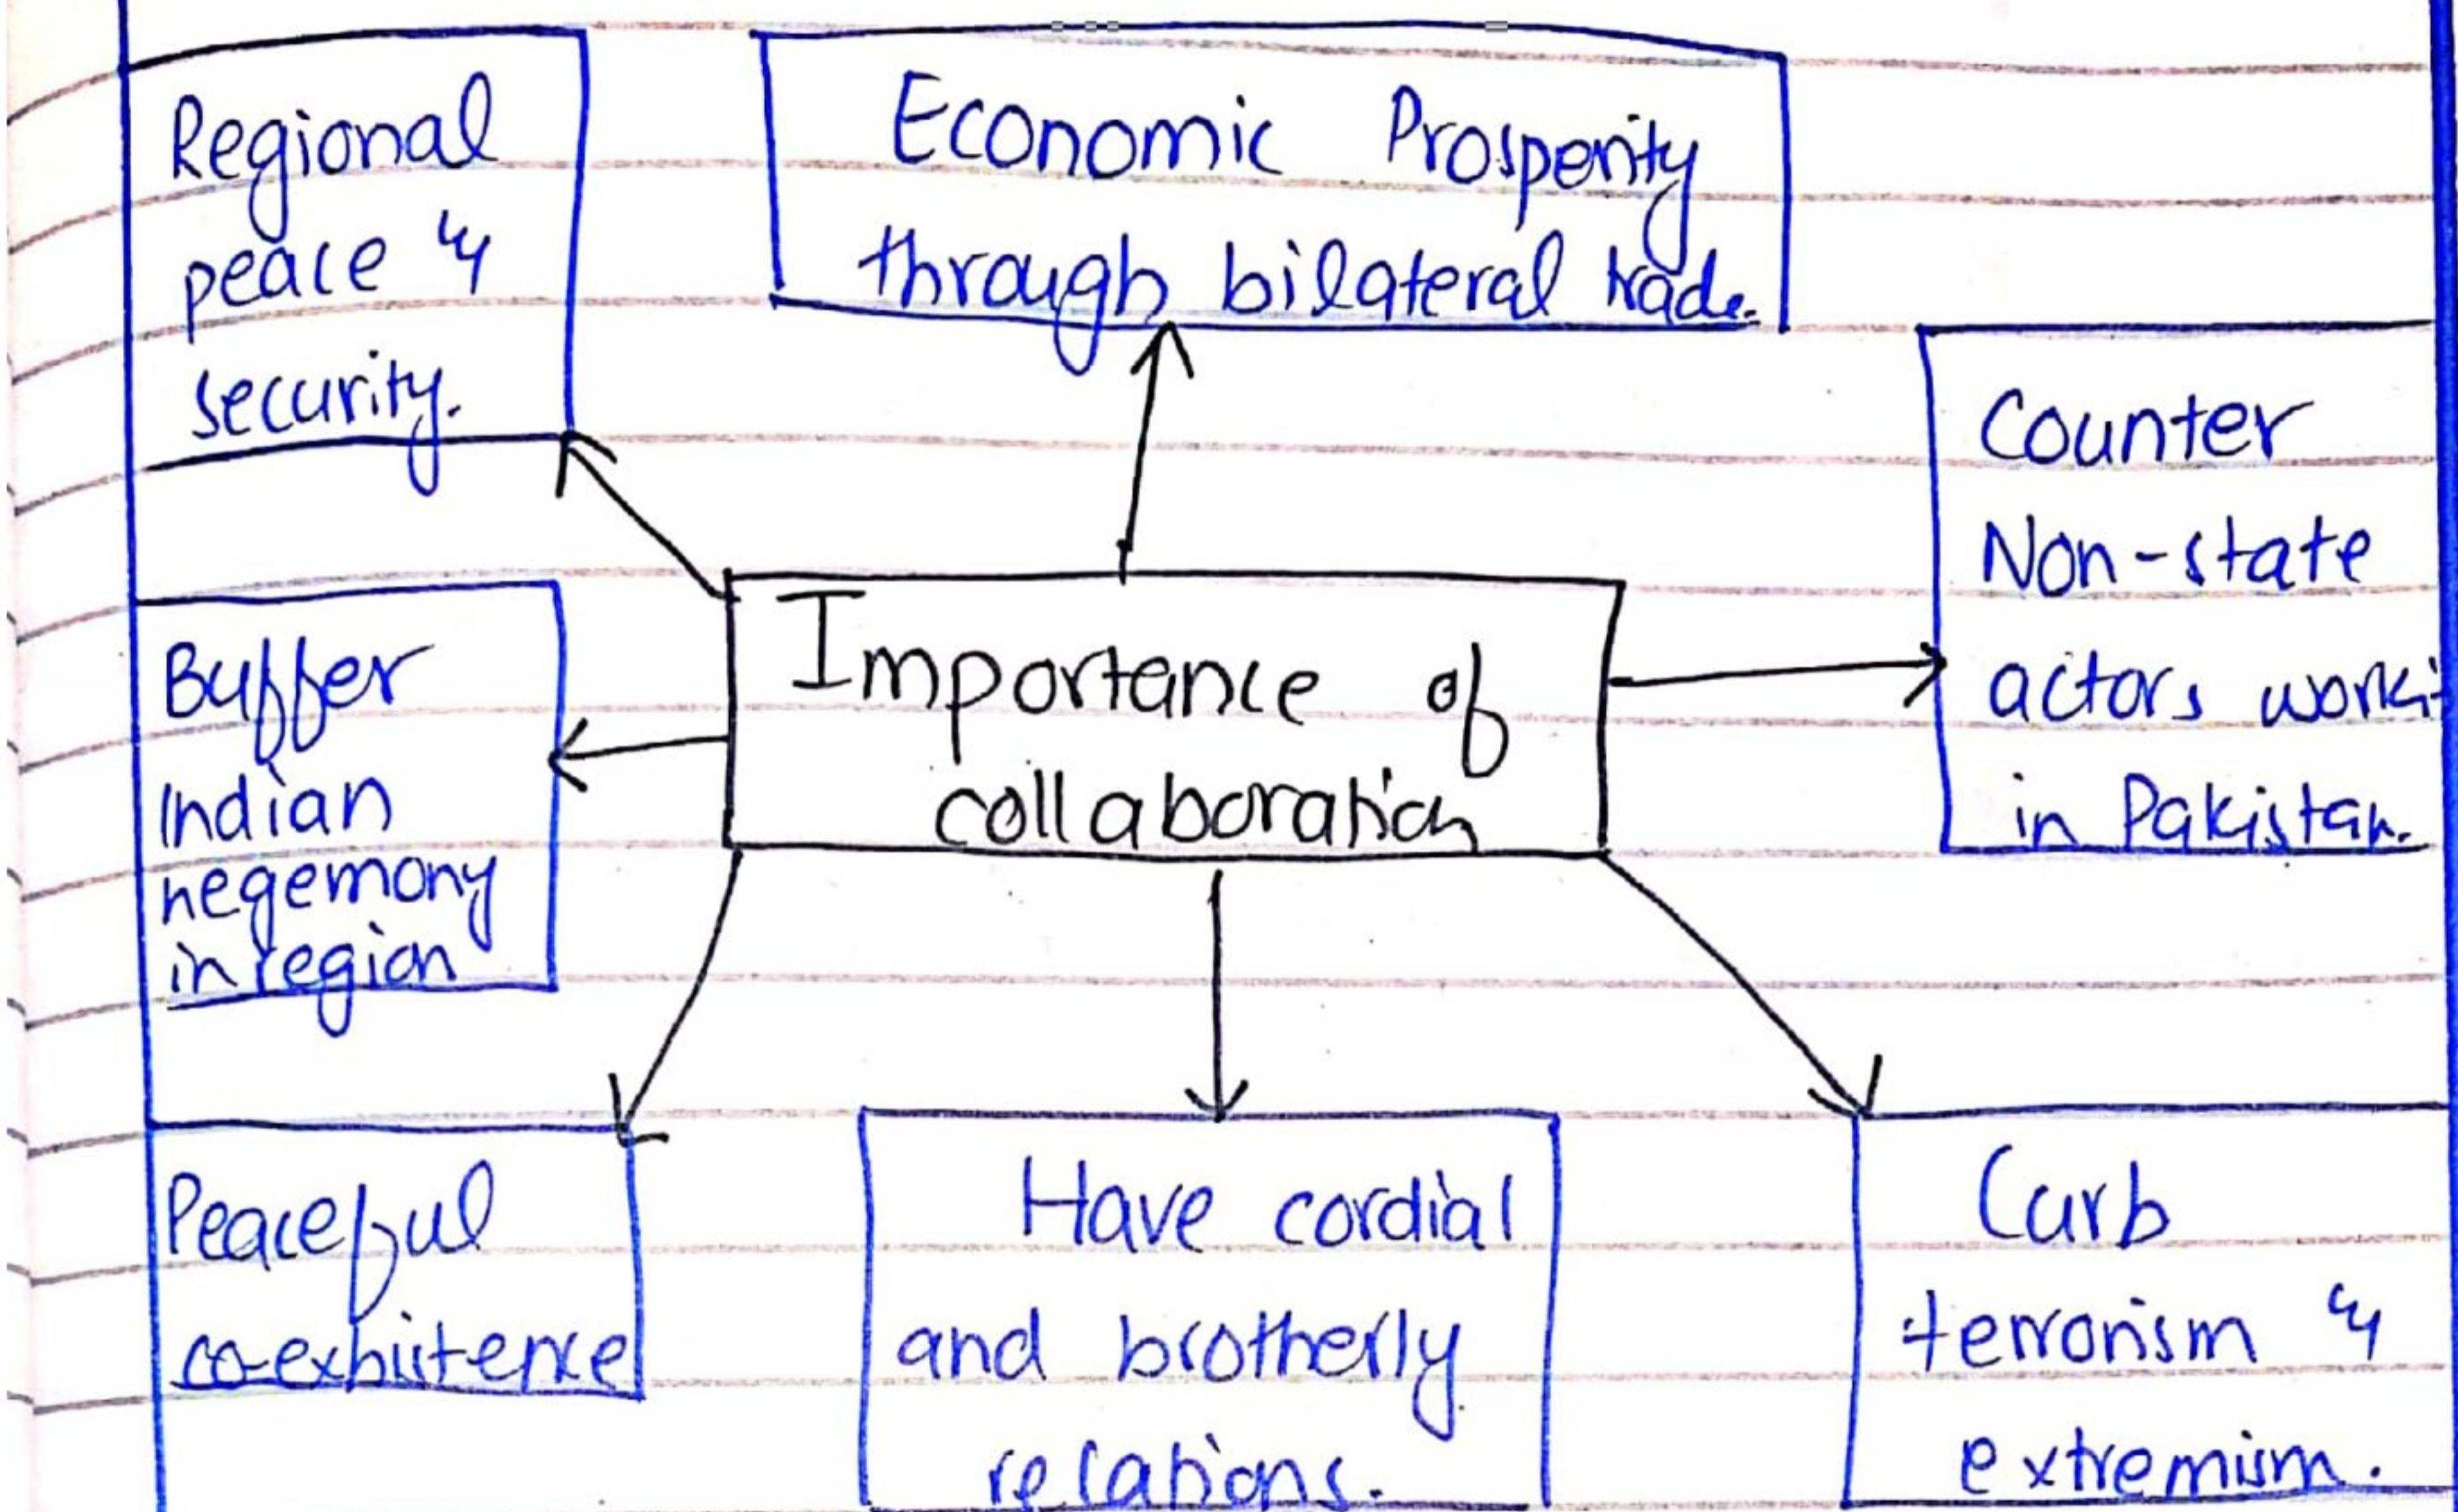

d - influx of refugees after Taliban regime.

4 Security challenges for Pakistan after Taliban's take over:

Security Challenges:

- Deterioration of national integration.
- surge in terrorism and extremism.
- may violate sovereignty of Pakistan.
- Clashes across the border.
- Promotion of non-state actors other than TTP in Pakistan.
- India can become more threatening enemy if it is able to manipulate current Pakistan and Afghan relation.

5- why it is important for Pakistan to work with Taliban:

6- Policy options for better collaboration:

Following recommendations can be made:

a- Put diplomatic pressure on Afghanistan to sever its ties with TTP.

b- Involve regional great actors like China and Russia for regional security.

c- Use international platform like OIC, SCO etc to include Taliban in regional and international discussions as exposure can change the rigid mind-set.

d- Establish economic ties with Taliban to increase connectivity.

e- Convince them to take action against non-state actors working on Afghan soil through soft power

b- fencing of border.

7-

Conclusion:

Taliban may be assured of all assistance in security and economic arenas but it should also be made crystal clear that Pakistan will not tolerate any attempt to challenge its sovereignty and pose security concerns.
