

Politicizing Climate Change is unfortunate for mankind.

I Introduction

What is politics in climate change.

II Politicization of climate change.

A. Views of developing nations about climate change

B. Views of developed nations about climate change.

C. - mechanism of Carbon trading

D. - Role of America in carbon emission reduction policies.

E. - Role of china about emission reduction strategies.

III Role of developed nations in COP-27.

IV How politicizing of climate change is unfortunate for mankind

A - Global temperature is continuously rising.

B - Future threats to more vulnerable countries.

C - No serious heed to climate threats

D. - Rise of sea level

E - melting of glaciers

F - Flooding

G - Cyclones, Hurricanes and Tornado

H - Forest fire and wild fire

I - Arid land and drought

J - water scarcity

K - Agriculture and economic loss

Recommendations for countries about climate change.

- A - need of serious attitude regarding climate change.
- B - formation of Unbiased Policies.
- C - Support to vulnerable countries.
- D - Sustainable strategic measures.

Conclusion.