

Agricultural decline in Pakistan and how to counter it.

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement :-

Agriculture in Pakistan has been under decline almost throughout whole history and is currently facing serious problems. Agriculture, however, can contribute greatly in strengthening Pakistan by providing job opportunities and enhancing economy. Agriculture in Pakistan can be made of great use through cultural reforms and exploiting every option to help agricultural industry.

2- Situation of agriculture in Pakistan

3- Reasons for agricultural decline in Pakistan

- a) Dearth of agricultural reforms
- b) Lack of political will
- c) Unstable economy of Pakistan
- d) Inclination of people towards urban life

e- Unavailability of agricultural technology

4- Effects of agricultural decline on Pakistan

- a) Worsened situation for policy-makers
- b) Loss to Pakistan's GDP
- c) Increase in unemployment
- d) Economic inequality in society of Pakistan

5- Ways to mitigate agricultural decline in Pakistan

- a) Effective and efficient reforms in agricultural industry
- b) Strengthening agricultural industry to be core goal of every government
- c) Spending more GDP on agriculture
- d) Introduce latest technology in agriculture industry
- e) Improvement of canal system and dams
- f) Educating farmers
- g) Loans to farmers on less interest

6- Conclusion