

Democracy in Pakistan hopes and hurdles

1. Introduction

Thesis statement
Democracy in Pakistan has both hopes and hurdles for people. On one hand it is better to rule Pakistan by democratic means but on other hand it can't function smoothly due to political anarchy. There is only one solution to rule country with democratic means is to build political consensus.

2. Why democracy in Pakistan can't flourish fully

3. Aspirations of people related to democratic government in Pakistan

- a. The people has the choice to select candidates according to their choice
- b. Majority party after winning election rule
- c. The people has right to interact with their representatives

e. Validity of candidates can be challenged in court

f. Government run the country through constitution

4. Difficulty in governing country through democratic mean

a. Allegation in polling creates political instability

b. Power of opposition to annul the decision of government

c. Political leaders mould public opinion against government

d. Political leaders gain advantage on rival through blame game.

5. How democracy can be strengthen in Pakistan

a. Bringing transparency in overall election process

b. Institutions role in politics should be minimized

c. Equality of everyone before law

d. Political issues should be settled through mutual consultation

f. Giving respect to mandate of people

Conclusion