

Palestinian Cinema: A Shield from Hatred

The author wrote about Nizar Hassan, a Palestinian filmmaker. After studying anthropology, he worked in cinema. In his film called independence, he criticised that for Israelis, annexation of Palestine was equal to independence. When the news was going on about the Israeli annexation of Palestine, the author received an email from Hassan about his latest documentary. He advised to choose enemies carefully otherwise one may adopt their habits. Colonialism also induces hate and diminishes the aspirations and dreams of life. He added that cinema and art not only saved him from hatred but also became a

Importance of Social Morality in Human Intelligence

For a layman, intelligence needs to discover love and kindness. Including the emphatic capacity ⁱⁿ of the training of human intelligence will enhance social morality and survival of humans. This training of moral intelligence is mainly the responsibility of educators and educational institutions. Historically, social morality was linked to religion. However, ^{religious institutions} ~~it~~ failed to instill the morality in human beings. They used to consider power and wealth as morality which gave rise to nuclear era. Hence, it is the responsibility of educational institutions to enhance morality. Since it is important to human intelligence, requirements
