

Higher Education As Saviour Of Nation

1) Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Higher education is proved to be the savior of nation via playing its role in all steps of progression. While the quantity and system of education can be debated, the absence of progress without it is an established fact. Through overcoming the flaws in higher education, it can make youth able enough to secure the nation from any political, social or natural crises.

2) Higher education and its role in saving nation

3) Higher education as savior of nation in all spheres and ages.

a) Assists true democracy - cutting the supply of anarchy.

b) Prefers meritocracy in all positions

~~c) Enables the survival of nation in any crises~~

c) Makes individual a responsible citizen.

d) Brings innovation in industry and job market

e) fosters entrepreneurs mind

f) Induces long-term prosperity by addressing social issues.

g) Enables the survival of nation in any crises.

h) Assumes leading role of the international community.

i) Creates soft image of the nation at global forum.

4) Flaws in higher education restricting it to be a savior of nation.

a) Conventional issues with higher education.

b) Governance and organizational structural issues.

c) Poor research work and plagiarism

5) Measures to make higher education efficient enough to save a nation

- a) Grants autonomy and ensures meritocracy
- b) Promotes equality among higher education for all - SDGs Goal 4.
- c) Emphasizes on choice and flexibility.
- d) Allocates sufficient budget for qualitative and quantitative education.
- e) Facilitates university-industry collaborations and partnerships.
- f) Ensures revised curriculum and research mechanism.

6) Conclusion