

Political Instability and Economic Growth

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement:- Political stability is one of the most important elements in the economic growth of the country. When there is political instability in the country, the economic growth gets effected due to the bad image of the country in front of international community. In order to bring political stability, the governments must have to bring reforms in their policies.

2- What is political instability and economic growth

3- Correlation of political instability and economic growth

4- Overview of political instability and economic growth in Pakistan

5- Reasons which leads to political instability in Pakistan a- Intervention of military dictatorship in the political affairs of the country b- Blame game of political leadership on establishment of the country

c- Lack of consensus between ruling and opposition parties of the country d- Lack of interest of parliamentarian in Parliamentary affairs e- limited role of civil society in the country

6- Effects of Political Instability in Pakistan a- ^{The} Economic growth of the country got affected b- decrease foreign direct investment in the country.

c- It increases a gap between the establishment and the people of Pakistan

7- Way forward to mitigate political instability in Pakistan a- There should be no intervention of establishment in the political affairs of the country b- Parliamentarians should resolve their political tussles in the Parliament c- There should be the supremacy of constitution and rule of law d- Parliamentarians, instead of blaming others should have to play their due role e- Civil society must have to put pressure on government for the interest of the people of Pakistan

8- Conclusion