

Topic: Has United Nations Succeeded in Averting War in the World?

Outline

1 Introduction

Thesis Statement:

United Nations, since its formation, has failed to hold the main purpose of its creation of averting war in the world. Even though it tried hard through its charter and missions to avert wars, however it still failed to do so pragmatically.

2. How United Nations failed in averting war in the world

3. UN has failed in averting war in the world

a. Failed to convince or stop governments from attacking sovereign lands

b. Political hegemony of P-5 states and their impunity over certain war mongering

c. United Nations is unable to stop war-funding

d. Failed to avert Civil wars proxied by foreign hands

e. United Nations could not control over technological advancement of war's weapons

4 United Nations has not Failed in averting war in the world

a. Global Sanctions are imposed because of United Nations Peace-keeping role

b. P-5 states are still questionable in front of United Nations General Assembly

c. United Nations cannot intervene in matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of any state

d. Successful peace-keeping missions of United Nations

e. United Nations keeps checks and balances on weapons of war

5. Albeit these are positives, however the war till happens under the nose of United Nations

a. Wars prevail even after sanctions

b. United Nations General Assembly resolutions can be rejected by any P-5 member state

c. United Nations did take action against states funding terrorism through international financial regimes

d. Peace-keeping missions are post-conflict mechanisms

e. The Veto-power states are out of this jurisdiction of checks and balances

6. Conclusion