

not increase too fast and democracy is not misled by life can be improved if there is a the standard of birth

Precis Paragraph

Recently the mass media, formerly subservient to the medical profession, have become increasingly restive and occasionally hostile. In Germany, in particular, the newspaper and television have given a great deal of time and space to the complaints against the medical profession. In Britain, on BBC radio and television, the medical practices have come under sharp and aggressive criticism. Is this antagonism to the profession justified? And if so, why? I have tried to answer that question by looking at the way it deals with some of the diseases of our civilization, including the most lethal, heart-attacks and cancer. If what emerges is an indictment of the profession, then I would rebut the charge that I am anti-doctor. What is required in the relationship between the doctor and the patient? The trust and unshakable trust, I would say. Montaigne said: "I honour physicians not for their services but for themselves." That goes for me too.

ANSWERS

What do you understand by the mass media?

newspapers and television are known as mass media that

Precis

At present, the media is more harmful to the medical profession as compared to the past. The medical profession is facing severe problems to the television and the newspaper. According to the writer, we need to increase the relationship among between doctor and patient for eradicating the diseases. We give award to the doctors for their soft behaviour.

Title: Mass media creating problems for Medical Profession