

Why is accepting women's freedom hard for Orthodoxy?

Outline

1 - Introduction

Thesis Statement: Even in 21st century, it is difficult for orthodoxy to admit women's freedom. This is because of the existing patriarchal norms and lack of education in the society. If people with orthodox mindset are properly enlightened about rights and status of women in the society, this attitude can be changed.

2 - Prevailing status of women in the society: An Overview

3 - Why women's freedom is unacceptable for orthodoxy?

- a - Women are considered to be home servants doing chores
- b - The unsafe environment at workplaces triggers orthodox people
- c - Prevailing honoured status of men in the society due to patriarchal mindset
- d - Religious extremist mindset fails to respect women's freedom
- e - Privacy concerns in Muslim countries : Religious values and practices.

f - Maternal issues of women

g - Lack of proper education regarding women rights

h - Certain illegal and unlawful acts taking place in society concerns orthodox people i - Wrong concept of Feminism in current society is intolerable by conservative populace.

4 - How this orthodox mentality affects women status in the society?

a - Women are considered less privileged members of the society: Low wages and less recognition

b - Gender discrimination at institutional and organizational level.

c - Limited role of women in decision making at governmental level.

d - Loss of motivation to work which results in limited quotas for women in jobs.

5 - What possible measures could be taken for convincing orthodoxy to accept women's freedom?

a - Awareness about the rights given to women by Islam: role of religious actors when addressing gender and religiously based inequalities

b - Making safe working environment for women: Rules and policies, SDG 5 and 10 c- Enhancing role of IT to ensure women safety : Tracking Apps and ease of assistance in emergency situations.

6- Conclusion

The far-reaching effects of Political instability in Pakistan.

Outline:

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Political stability is imperative for inclusive and sustainable national development. In Pakistan, due to political instability, it cannot bode well in all aspects of life. However, dealing with Pakistan's political matters in an efficient way will turn helpful for controlling this issue.

2- The ongoing political scenarios in Pakistan: An Overview

3- How political instability poses negative effects on Pakistan?

- a- Declining the healthy political environment due to continuous change of governments.
- b- Erosion of democratic culture
- c- Constitutional deterrence has been declining
- d- Civil-Military Relations/Division: Resentment against military is on peak.
- e- Pakistan relations with major powers are on verge: Lack of trust in government
- f- Judicial influence and Activism in Politics

g - Political instability is directly proportional to the economic instability : bankruptcy, industrial downfall, unemployment

h - Decreasing Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)

i - Social contract has been waning : social unrest, rampant corruption, illiteracy, sectarianism, widening ethnic divide.

j - Killing the national integrity

k - Escalating terrorism and extremism

4 - Remedial Measures that can be taken to overcome political instability in Pakistan

a - Enforcing constitutional laws in true sense

b - Independence of judiciary : non-biased and neutral judicial system

c - Civil-military engagements

d - Building the concept of national integrity

e - Culture of tolerance : decorum and respect of Parliament

f - Encourage public participation and work mutually for betterment of Pakistan

5 - conclusion