

WOMENS ARE'NT JUST MOTHERS, DAUGHTERS, SISTERS

OUTLINE:

GOOD

- ① Introduction:
"Women are personified with beauty, calmness, gentleness, endurance, flexibility and are expected to perform mild and gentle roles of mother, daughters, sisters and homemakers. But there is a broad way of opportunities for them other than the traditional roles. They can ace every/many other fields too because of their productive contribution!"
- ② Women are much more than being a wife, sister, mother.
- ③ Traditional roles of women.
  - Personified with emotions.
  - Only to perform reproductive role.
  - considered as obedient slaves.
  - confined to domestic sphere.
- ④ A Women have much more in her plate than traditional roles
  - Women are better half of humanity, they are the missing block in this endocentric world.
  - If God <sup>made</sup> created them equal and sovereign then opportunities must also be divided equally.
  - They can ace when enter in their 'productive roles' too.
  - Women can stand shoulder to shoulder with men, can work in every field.
  - World is a canvas and ~~they~~ women are <sup>its</sup> painters as equally as men.
  - Women are agents of radicalization, development and success.
  - Women cover half the sky, they can work in same capacity as men.

Conclusion.