

Women empowerment will bring Revolution that we dream of Outline

Introduction

Thesis Statement: Women are agent of change. Their empowerment will change the world dynamics. There are multiple factors that contribute to bring women empowerment. That empowerment results revolution that humans dream of. It faces few challenges but they are easily manageable and countered.

Women empowerment ensures revolution:

An Overview

Factors that brings women empowerment

- a) Access to free education
- b) Ensure security public and private security of women
- c) Empower economically to women
- d) Open doors for political participation
- e) Ensure constitutional rights.

The Revolution dream of through women empowerment

- a) Large segment of women intellectuals will be produced.
- b) End of Stereotypical thinking
- c) Equitable economic prosperity will be achieved
- d) Women-centric legislation <sup>will be</sup> ensured
- e) Imbalance of rights removed

Challenges to ensure women empowerment

- a) Male-dominated institutions
- b) Religious and cultural taboos
- c) Narrow mind set of genders

Ways to counter challenges that ensure women empowerment results revolution

- a) Devolve power among women
- b) Raise awareness among clergy and traditional class
- c) Arrange open space discussion on women issues

Conclusion

There are revolutions in recent history that has changed the life of people. The revolution of 7th century in Madina, the revolution of Martin Luther in 16th century in Europe, and the revolution of Xi Jinping in China have changed the social, political, religious and economic well-being and life of individuals. Subsequently, humans have also dreamt that women empowerment will bring the revolution. The factors that contribute in women empowerment are free education and security of women. Moreover, economic empowerment and political participation are also other factors that adds in women empowerment. The implementation of constitutional rights are the main pillar of women empowerment. This empowerment of women materialize the dream that large segment women intellectuals produced. Stereotypical thinking ends and equitable economic prosperity achieved. Furthermore, women-centric legislation and imbalance among male and female removed. However, there are few challenges that resist in empowerment like male-dominated institutions, cultural and religious taboos and narrow thinking. Beside challenges, there ways to counter these challenges. Revolution of power among women, raise awareness and arrange open space discussion for women empowerment can be are some methods to remove challenges. Women are agent of change. Their empowerment will change the world dynamics. There are multiple ways that contribute

In women empowerment. That empowerment will result revolution that dream of. However, it faces few challenges but concrete methods can easily resolve them.