Although, Pakistan does have substantial challenges but there are opportunities as well: Pakistan enjoys a unique geographical ~~structure~~ position making her capable of providing a transit route to the South Asians for trade. Pakistan sits at the choke point of West Asians and East Asians countries and in her South Pakistan also possess the opportunity of connecting these countries with Middle Eastern nations. This transit route service can earn Pakistan billion of dollars in the form of tax revenues. According to a report mentioned in Dawn Newspaper Pakistan earned 7000 million dollars alone providing transit facility to Afghanistan, & reach India. In short the geographical position of the country is such that, if utilised in its full extent, it has ~~every~~ ~~all~~ ~~the~~ ~~capability~~ all the potential to ~~alter~~ the economic fortunes of the nation.
