

Artificial Intelligence and the future of humanity

KEEP PRACTISING

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

Artificial intelligence is integrated in every field of life. Artificial intelligence will amplify human effectiveness, but also threatens human autonomy, agency and capabilities. However, with proper measures it will give more benefits than

2. Correlation of Artificial Intelligence and future of humanity

3- How artificial intelligence will be adding benefits for the future of humanity.

- a- AI is producing new communication efficiency and enhancing human capacity
- b- Reducing the workload burden on the human in every field of life
- c- AI will bring revolution in the field of medicines and saving lives
- d- Reducing the risk of getting harm in the industries
- e- Issuing of early warning related to terrorist activities
- f- Monitoring and handling of environmental hazards carefully.
- g- Efficiency in decision making.

4. Negative Impacts of artificial intelligence on the future of humanity.

- a- Loss of control of humans over their lives
- b- Creation of greater economic gap between haves and have-nots
- c- Significantly increased unemployment due to AI takeover.
- d- Reduction of individual cognitive, social and survival skills.
- e- Increased chances of cyberwarfare
- f- Spread of autonomous weapons and weaponized information
- e- Pushing human towards the lethargic condition.

5. Way forward: Utilization of Artificial Intelligence for shaping better future of humanity.

- a- Improvement of collaboration across border and stakeholder groups
- b- Ethical use of Artificial intelligence for common good
- c- Creating new job opportunities in the fields
- d- Educating people about use of AI
- e- Development of international organization for the watch on AI companies

6- Conclusion.

Current Economic trends in Pakistan: Path towards stability or bankruptcy.

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

Currently, Pakistan economy is strewn with many problems. Current economic trends reflects the alarming condition of economic crisis, has placed the Pakistan on the path of bankruptcy. However, with war footing policy, Pakistan will overcome the economic crisis and put the country on the path of stability.

2. Overview of current economic trends in Pakistan,

3. Leading factors shaping current economic trends to economic crisis, placing Pakistan on path of bankruptcy a- Political instability in the country.

- b- Deep rooted subsidy culture
- c- Rampant corruption at all levels in country
- d- Import centric economy
- e- Revivance of military

4- How is the current economic trends, is placing Pakistan on road of bankruptcy.

a- Ballooning Balance of Payment deficit in Pakistan

b- Exchange rate depreciation

c- Mounting inflation leading to unrest in country

d- Presence of low tax to GDP ratio

e- Depletion in the Foreign exchange reserve.

5 Ways to drag Pakistan from path of bankruptcy and to put it on way of stability a- Expansion of the tax base by documentation of economy

b- Digitalization of FBR

c- Promotion of export, by exporting high value products

d- Development of industrial sector by shifting towards indigenous energy resources

e- Autonomy of the state bank of Pakistan.

6- ~~Learning lesson from nightmare economic crisis of Sri Lanka~~

7- ~~Conclusion.~~

Is WORLD PEACE UTOPIAN IN CONTEMPORARY ERA

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

Although ballooning conflicts among nations have marred the world peace, but it is not utopian in the contemporary era. The world has passed through greater conflicts than contemporary ones. Therefore, through proper policies peace can be restored.

2- How is world peace utopian in the contemporary era.

3- A retrospective account of the war stricken history as more lethal than contemporary world a- Deadliest world war I and world war II

b- Twenty years long war in Afghanistan.

4- How is the world peace practical not utopian in the 'Contemporary world.'

a- Globalisation has increased the dependency of nations and decreased violence

b- The concepts of war has transformed from rivalry to competition.

c- Cyber warfare technologies has decreased the threats of war d- Consensus of all nations to combat global threats

e- Together - climate change.

f- Global institutions for protecting the rights of the people.

5- Why is world peace utopian than practical in modern world.

a- Devastating war in Ukraine, with Russia not taking account

b- Competition among big powers is heading toward the traditional war - Taiwan crisis

the violence ideologies e- UN role as a more authentic institution

7- Conclusion