

Title

Past leads toward bright future.

Precis

There is a strange relationship between past and future and the people who analyze their past critically and realistically are able to Break into a new sentence

You have to open with a precise sentence adopt meaningful way for better future. They understand the values and traditions which invested earlier civilizations. They keep the events of past in

Not making sense

their minds and try to follow those values which caused the rise of nation. The people who are uncertain about their future do not keep much relations with past. They close past lessons and never able to learn from past.

Use another word

Possible title

Understanding of past is necessary for better future

Work on better word selection Improve bit of structure

Words

total words = 252

Precis words = 90