Q2) Write the precis and suggest suitable title?

The suitable title for the given passage is:
The Reality of Israel's Independence

~~After studying anthropology,~~ Nizar Hassan started his career in television and then, cinema. His first movie was 'Independence' in which he unclothed the reality of Israeli notion of independence to his Palestinian interlocutors. ~~He showed~~ how they captured Palestine illegally in the name of independence. While the global attention was moving towards Israeli plans of annexing more lands, Mr. Hassan ~~sent~~ an email to the author. He wrote about his latest movie, 'My Grandfather's Path' ~~which revolves around~~ about the criteria of selecting enemies as they mould a person's personality just like them and detach him from the things which formulate a person's ambition. ~~He told that film industry saved him from these traps and reminded him about the reality of politics.~~ This movie is a masterpiece of Israel's atrocities on Palestinian people. Al Jazeera has broadcasted its shorter versions, but they must be watched collectively.
