Civilization is defined as a system in which people merge themselves together and follow a particular set of beliefs, culture, values, and norms.

3- Characteristics of Islamic civilization:

He has asked elements not characteristics

These are multiple characteristics of Islamic civilization which are mentioned and explained under the following headings:

1) Belief in the Oneness of Allah ~ Tauheed:

Tauheed is the bedrock of Islamic civilization, because it is the declaration of an individual who enters into the Deen of Islam by reciting

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

"There is no god, but Allah"

An individual cannot claim to be the member of Islamic civilization unless he believes in the oneness of Allah in creation, in attributes, and in action.

" Say it is Allah who is not One. He neither begets nor is begotten.

2) System of Beliefs:

Islamic civilization has the system of beliefs that range from: belief in Oneness of Allah, belief in the finality of Prophet (PBUH), belief in angels, belief in Akhirah, belief in Wahi. The system of beliefs makes Islamic civilization different from other civilizations.

3- System of Worships.

The other feature of Islamic civilization is the system of worships which are obligatory and the disobedience of which is prohibited in the religion Islam. As it is mentioned in the Quran:

وَأَقِمُّوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَارْكَعُوا مَعَ الرَّاكِعِينَ ۝

"And establish prayer and pay Zakat and bow with those who bow." (Al-Baqarah)

The obligatory worships of the Islamic civilization include, prayer, almsgiving, fasts, pilgrimage. It is obligatory for every man and woman to obey Allah by performing these worships.
