

Q) What does Pakistan need the most: Charter of Economy or Charter of Democracy?

Outline:

1) Introduction:

Thesis statement: Since its inception, Pakistan has been exposed to multifarious economic and democratic crisis. Despite both issues having significant consequences, it is the democratic crisis that has proven to be more severe. By ameliorating the democratic predicament, the country can be set on the path of prosperity.

2) The importance of Charter of Economy and Charter of Democracy for Pakistan.

3) Charter of Democracy is indispensable for a thriving Pakistan

a) Ensure Political stability in the country

b) Ensure Military interventions are nipped in the bud

c) Foster transparency in governance

d) Long-term projects and targets are properly seen through.

e) Ensure rule of law prevails

4) The necessity of charter of Economy cannot be overlooked either

- a) The country requires economic stability more than political stability
- b) Despite no direct military interventions, the top brass will continue to pull strings.
- c) Long-term projects require funds more than they require political stability
- d) Encourage transparency of public funds.
- e) Strong economic environment enhances business opportunities and foreign investment.

5) The necessity of charter of Democracy outweighs the need of charter of Economy

- a) Political stability can set the tone for economic prosperity
- b) By strengthening political institutions, political engineering can be foiled.
- c) Rule of law and accountability prevails in a strong democratic environment.
- d) Large scale development is only possible in a politically stable country.
- e) Long-term policies can be devised to attract foreign investment and inflate business and employment prospects

6) Conclusion