Q.2: Make a précis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Almost every sensible and responsible person has some goal to achieve. He takes it as a target to reach an aim to fulfill. Therefore, he makes some plan in right earnest and materialize his aim or object. Goal is obviously a well-thought and well-planned purpose for which a man strives, pursue it and ultimately wins it, provided everything goes well and he does not give up.

Plans in a systematic arrangement of some object to achieve something in a given period of time. It involves methods, steps, strategy and way out to get something for which man aspires. A plan depends upon a planners will power determination and intelligence as to how he puts everything in right order at the right time. A proverb says, "Strike the iron while it is hot". It means a good planner should make best of the opportunity as soon as he gets it. Another proverb says, "Make Bay while the sun shines". It means one should avail oneself of a favourable opportunity well in time. Another proverb says, "A bird in hands is worth two in the bush". It means 'whatever one has at one's disposal it is the best and can do well at least for the time being. A long waiting for a better chance and missing the good ones, leaves one devoid of either. Such uncertain and hesitating situation tantalizes man and invokes frustration and unrest in him. It is, therefore, wise to utilize the available opportunity to its best, and whatever is at man's disposal at the moment should be availed of, rather than sitting idle and wavering a vein.

Proper role at the proper time plays a vital part of a man of action. Since excess of everything is positive action, he should be decisive and determined. A slight hesitation and infirmity of willpower might leave him beaten or failed. His role as a well-organized man of action can win him laurels. The moment he believes that he can win what he aspires and endeavors for he gets it. It is a state of mind and determination that enables man of action to achieve a brilliant success. So, a moderate and definite plan paves way to a sure success that lies ahead of a man, who thinks he can make difficult things possible. He plays a part of a mover and potent doer who steals the show surprisingly. His goal is the determination that attracts him like a magnet and a beacon light that guides him to his most aspired aim of life.
