

Meaning and Purpose of Education

Thesis Statement: The meaning as well as the purpose of the education has been to educate and enlighten the masses. It is because education remains a viable means for the public to sail through flickering times to prosperity and development for their society at whole.

Outline :

01. Introduction
02. Why does a nation require education to strengthen its fate?
03. Inculcates a sense of responsibility among citizenry towards their society
04. An education with purpose produces leaders for a world in transition
05. Open ways to embrace pluralism
06. Paves ways towards socio-economic development
07. Counters propaganda-driven narratives via pragmatic framework
08. Empowers marginalized ones and women in specific to occupy decision making corners
09. Instills the trait of optimism over despair during turbulent periods
10. A tool to turn masses into problem solvers amid social conflicts
11. Ensures masses to adopt and adapt to the changing paradigms of the modern world
12. Minimizes the potential threat of national-ethnic fractionalization

13. Integrates a sense of collective responsibility among global citizenry towards existential threats to humanity
14. Provides a room for knowledge exchange among cross-border public
15. Is a contemporary model of education in fit with the challenges global community surrounded to?
16. Conclusion