

_ _ / _ _ / 20_

Higher Education in Pakistan: ills and Remedies

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

Higher education system of Pakistan is full of ills. It is not producing graduates with having sufficient skills and knowledge to perform in their respective fields. These problems should be solved instantly, otherwise it is leading towards grave situation.

2. Types of Higher education in Pakistan

3. Ills present in higher education of Pakistan

a. Lack of practical skills and research based education

b. Lack of analytical thinking among students

c. No focus on character building of students

d. Education is not standardized between private and public sectors.

e. No focus on innovation in the institutions.

f. Political interference in institutions for their own purpose

4. Factors responsible for the issues in Higher Education

a. Adequate research institutions and laboratories are not present in the country

b. Promotion of cramming system instead of useful skills

c. Government allocate limited budget to the institutions

5. Consequences of the ills in Higher Education

a. Unemployment among educated youth

b. Increase in social issues

c. Youth is becoming liability to the state

6. Remedies to remove this ills from higher education

a. Government must increase budget availability to the institutions

- b. Education must be based on practicality rather than theory
- c. Policies should be devised to maintain standardization between public and private institutes
- d. Modern infrastructure, laboratories, libraries must be established
- e. Political must be set aside of educational institutes

1. Conclusion