

Topic : The necessity of, and resistance to, old-age homes in our society

Outline :

1) Introduction

Thesis statement : Despite the necessity of old-age homes for the elderly, the people are resistant towards sending the elderly to these homes. However, through combine efforts a change can be brought in this attitude.

2) Old-age homes are facing undue resistance despite being essential

3) The old-age homes are essential for the elderly

- a) Round the clock medical care
- b) Specialized staff for special needs
- c) to provide companionship and counter loneliness
- d) Fast paced life of theyouth
- e) Avoid carelessness
- f) Different nutritional needs

4) Why the old-age homes are being resisted

- a) Attachment of children and grand children
- b) Islamic rights of parents
- c) Fear of society
- d) Joint family system
- e) Lack of trust in facilities
- f) Carelessness of the government

5) How the resistance can be countered

- a) Social media campaign
- b) Awareness through education
- c) Involvement of agencies and government to provide care

6) Conclusion