Title: A Dream of Martin Luther King

Martin Luther King believes on the equality of all men, and has a dream that one day his nation will get freedom. He has a dream that without any discrimination, the sons of slaves and owners will be able to sit together in the red hill of Georgia. He has a dream that one day there will be freedom of Justice instead of oppression in the state of Mississippi. He has a dream that one day his children will live in a nation where they will be Judge by their character rather than race or color. He has a dream that one day the governor of Alabama will said that black children and white children will live as a brothers and sisters. He has a dream that one day the glory of
