India is constantly facing the issue of rape culture. Every year hundreds of women are made victim and perpetrator either escape or released, especially the officials belonging to the ruling BJP. Lay miscreants when caught are subjected to penalty under the existent rape laws. However,

In case of High profile sexual assault cases the Indian law fails to provide justice to the victims of rape.

In a recent report, it is revealed that Congress dominated Indian states and states with greater number of minorities i.e. Christian and Muslims ^{have} faced an increasing cases of sexual assaults and rapes.

The victims have reported the cases, but the police remained mere spectators and the high govt officials neglected the severity of these cases. For example,

Hindulva partisans cheered the alleged miscreants in the rape of 8 years old Asifa Bano in a temple in Kathua. In addition,

11 convicted rapists from Gujarat were released benevolently from Prison last year as PM Modi held conference at the Red Fort about his commitment to protect Indian women.
