

Female harassment at work places exposes deeper social fault-lines

Outline

- 1- Introduction: Thesis Statement: At work places, female harassment exposes deeper social fault lines. Several social faultlines including illiteracy, gender disparity, gender stereotype etc are behind female harassment. Therefore, some recommended steps be adopted to curtail female harassment at work places.
- 2- Female harassment: the most neglected factor today

3- Female harassment at work places as deeper social faultlines

- a) Long-prevailing illiteracy and social unawareness
- b) Disparity between gender in society
- c) Deep-rooted gender stereotype
- d) Lack of religious and social counselling
- e) Absence of moral values in society
- f) Misinterpretation of religious concept
- g) Biased role of media: coverage to harassment

4- Implications of female harassment at work places

- a) Threat to women's mobility
- b) Birth of female dependency syndrome
- c) Female mental unrest and psychosis
- d) Economic downfall: shock to women's labour market
- e) Rise of patriarchal society

f) Liable to personality: re-birth of honour killing

5- Suggestive Measures to curtail female harassment at work places

- a) To introduce women's exclusive business
- b) To ensure implementation of women's protection act
- c) To enhance education and social awareness campaign
- d) To improve gender equality through mass media and religious groups

6- Conclusion