

Despite its urgency, Climate Crisis remains the most neglected cause.

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

2. An Overview of the Climate Crisis

3. Why Climate Crisis Should be addressed?

a. Irregular weather patterns

b. Natural disasters; Cause humanitarian Crisis

d. Economic instability

e. Ecosystems become uninhabitable for certain animals

f. ~~Increases the~~

f. Increasing health threats

g. Food insecurities

h. Threat to Regional and Global Peace.

4. Reasons behind neglecting climate crisis

- a. Securing national interest instead of global interest.
- b. Focus on policies making rather than implementation of policies.
- c. Lack of awareness
- d. Major emitters of hydrocarbons, do not meet the Carbon-cut-off plan.
- e. Less funds allocation against climate crisis.
- f. Division of Global South and North.

5. Steps to Overcome the Problems of Climate.

- a. Proper Implementation of policies
- b. Plantation and de-carbonization
- c. Spread awareness on regional and global level.
- d. Funds allocation to Cop's and developing countries.
- e. The major emitters of hydrocarbon must meet the Carbon-cut-off plan.

6. Conclusion

True Democracy and Enigma of Populism

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

2. The Concept of Democracy and Populism in modern world.

3. How Democracy falls to populism?

a. Injustice and interfering in the internal affairs of the country.

i. Treaty of Versailles → Adolf Hitler's Populism was one of the consequences of the treaty's shortcomings.

b. Reviving conservatism and glorious past of the nation.

i. Trump's Slogan → Make America Great Again.

ii. Conservatism of Jair Bolsonaro: "War on gender ideology"

c. Re-establishing the bygone leading role of the community.

i. Ottoman Caliphate and Pan-Islamism by Tayyip Erdogan.

d- Fixing economic grievances of the nation.
i- Boris Johnson's Slogan "Get Brexit Done"

e- Racial Supremacy Over the territory
i- Superiority of Aryan race antisemitic idea in Germany by Adolf Hitler.

ii- Hindutva by RSS (BJP. Modi)

4. Impacts of a populist Regime:

Populism

a- Decisions based on Populism are Short-term.

i- Populism policies are emotions based.

ii- No focus on environmental or educational aspects via populism

b- Degrading nation's intellect

i- It stop people minds to go forward and sane voices are suppressed.

c. Promoting fascism, discrimination, and violence on religious based.

i. Holocaust (1941-45).

ii. Trump's Supporters Capturing Capital Hill.

iii. Anti-Muslim mindset and law: ban on hijab (March 2022)

d. Intensify Polarization among masses

i. In Populism a natural division exist. e.g
Liberals vs Conservative, PFI vs PDM.

e. Giving upper hand to personalities and parties over the system

i. System become a stake for the sake of personalities.

5. Mitigation and Aversion towards the shift to Populism.

a. Favoring Systems and rule of law over entities.

i. No Discriminatory legislation.

ii. constitution → highest esteem

b. Educating the masses

Thinking Strategically,
long term

c. Shunning identity Politics

i. Focus on greater good rather than specific race.

"I am not the president of blue America, neither red America, rather of US of America"

(~ Obama)

d. Regulating media and social media

i. Curbing fake news and hate speeches - monitoring the trends in society.

6. Conclusion: