

Precis (2017)

CSS

The author narrates that, the humans are responsible for creating evil deeds in the world. With comparison to, the devil who is busy in performing their assigned task without wasting a single minute. According to the author, it's not laziness which has brought humans about but lacks a passive virtue. However, existing energies are massive in number but mostly misdirects. The energies which were required at the first while averting world war. The statesman has showed less efforts. As a result, the humiliation of Versailles occurred. Therefore adopting no approach and saying future will be better is just wasting of time. Despite need to utilize such energies, they adopt an approach of doing nothing. Moreover, if the notion "Laziness is crime" would raise by politicians, it will be a great benefit to humanity. Similarly, the religious sects are also utilization their energies and effortlessly while discussing the personal matters of one's life. Therefore, they would first rehabilitate their mentality.

Title:

Misplaced energies and efforts

Precis words: 157

Total words: 443